

PRICE AND VICINITY

The Wilson Cafe expects to be open to the public today (Thursday).

The Advocate job department has just issued the 1912-13 catalogue of the Price academy.

Passenger Train No. 4 was about eight hours late this morning due to a washout last night at Thistle.

Master Kenneth Bentler gave a birthday party yesterday afternoon to a number of his youthful friends.

L. W. Muzzey has quit Stevenson Lumber company to go to work for Lars Gunderson, the building contractor.

The Kentucky Liquor House this week unloaded three cars of beer and one car of whisky jugs for its trade locally.

J. Nelson, forman of the Southern Utah bridge and building department, is quite ill at his home in Price of Bright's disease.

Master Frank Olson gave a party Tuesday afternoon at his home to a crowd of little friends, the occasion being his fifth birthday.

A. H. Cowie, vice president of the Utah Fuel company, has transferred a valuable tract of coal land in Spring Canyon to the Knight interests.

Traveling salesmen are again getting around after the two celebrations of last month, reporting business generally as quite good throughout Eastern Utah.

J. E. Pettit, state mine inspector, was at Castle Gate during the week examining the properties there, which he found in first-class condition. Next week he goes to Kenilworth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson entertained at a dinner party last Sunday, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson of Hiawatha, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Darrah and Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Sorenson.

The regular coal rates return today (August 1st) at Salt Lake City and elsewhere from the summer storage rate of $5.50 per ton to $5.75, which will obtain until the first of May, 1913.

James Pittman, formerly of Clear Creek, has bought the Mageri saloon business at Kenilworth and will conduct the same under the name of the Kenilworth Trading company.

The Utah Fuel baseball team met defeat Saturday afternoon at Riverton by a score of nine to eight. The game was tied until the last inning, when the Riverton boys got a batting streak and won the game.

Mrs. Matt Gilmour entertained the bridge club at her home on North Seventh street last evening, the auction bridge being played. The prizes went to Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Miss Jessie Fouts and C. H. Averill.

Marriage licenses were issued during the past week to Audrey Roberts of Price and Emma Jensen of Fountain Green; John McCluskey and Mary Gilbert, both of Clear Creek; and to George Earl Demorest and Lizzie Frances Nelson, both of Hiawatha.

John E. Brown of Moab, who was thrown into a barbed wire fence by a fractious horse which he was riding in a race on the Twenty-Fourth, is still at the home of W. F. Olson. The cuts which he received are healing as well as might be expected, and he hopes to be out within a few days.

Elsewhere in this impression will be found the call for the Carbon county republican convention issued by A. W. Horsley, chairman. The date is Saturday, August 24th, when a full set of county officers will be nominated and delegates chosen to the state convention at Salt Lake City, September 5th.

Several friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lauber surprised them last Monday evening, the occasion being the former's birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tingley, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nelms, Mr. and Mrs. Gwilym Jones and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bench. Choice refreshments were served.

An adjourned term of district court was convened at Price yesterday afternoon by Judge Albert H. Christenson, the calendar being set ahead until August 8th. The case of Willis Thompson, charged with cattle theft in connection with Glenn Olson, came on yesterday and is being heard as The Advocate goes to press. Olson pleaded guilty at the beginning of the present term.

Mrs. J. A. Crockett entertained the ladies' aid society Tuesday afternoon, when the annual election of officers occurred. Mrs. J. E. Ferris was chosen president; Mrs. J. A. Crockett, vice president; Mrs. D. D. Lewis, secretary, and Mrs. C. H. Stevenson, treasurer. The outgoing officers were given a vote of thanks by the members present, after which refreshments were served.

R. Mahon has been appointed assistant superintendent of the Salt Lake division of the Denver and Rio Grande, and S. L. Hacey trainmaster with jurisdiction over the valley district, Ogden to Thistle, and its branches, including the Hingham district. G. D. Hughes, trainmaster at Helper, has been given jurisdiction over the mountain district, Thistle to Helper, including branches.

Sunday evening a man named Palmer from Kenilworth, aged about 22 years, visited the offices of Dr. A. C. Sorenson at Price, suffering from an ugly gash on his head. Whether he received it in a fight or fell out of a buggy, the injured man would not say. An hour longer, however, and he would have bled to death. Dr. Sorenson is about the busiest man in Price since locating here.

A. T. Thompson of Los Angeles, Cal., has been in Price this week organizing an Order of Owls lodge. The first meeting was held last Sunday afternoon in Woodmen Hall, when a membership of eighty-four was enrolled. Another meeting will be held this (Thursday) evening, when the charter closes. It is expected to have a total membership of a hundred or more. The Order of Owls pays a weekly sick benefit.

Green River is to have electric lights and power, according to the articles of incorporation of the Green River Light, Power and Utility company, filed last Monday in the office of the secretary of state. The capital stock is $300,000 in shares of one dollar each. D. W. Parker is president; George Day, vice president; S. J. Neer, secretary; F. E. Sparks, treasurer, and Bert H. Smith, an additional director.

The wrestling match at Castle Dale on the 24th between Sam Jewkes and L. P. Clair for the championship of Emery county, proved to be a rather short bout, Clair getting the first fall in seven minutes with a full nelson, Jewkes the second fall in six minutes with a body lock. Clair got the third and last fall in four minutes with a body lock. The match was clean and the spectators were agreeably surprised.

That the Denver and Rio Grande contemplates making Salt Lake City instead of Ogden its terminal is persistently rumored in local railroad circles. One of the most logical reasons put forward in support of this is the advantage of direct Western Pacific connection from Salt Lake City to the coast, making the Salt Lake City terminal answer for both allied lines, instead of one being at Ogden. The intercity service could still be maintained.

The Nichols family in music, song and dancing will be at City Hall tomorrow and Saturday nights. Professor Nichols is a scholarly and finished musician and his concerts are of the highest order. His family of children are all talented performers, while Master Loring has not an equal as a boy cornetist. Professor Nichols is a Utah man, and from all over the state the press notices are most flattering. A rare entertainment is promised for tomorrow and Saturday nights.

Eleven cars of Passenger Train No. 2 of the Denver and Rio Grande were derailed near Thompsons last Sunday morning. It is most remarkable that among three hundred and fifty persons on board there were no fatalities and only one man injured, his hurts being extremely slight. Traffic was held up for about eleven hours. The injured man's name was not learned. The tender of the engine was the first to leave the track. It was partly overturned. The baggage car and smoker toppled over and the coal car was badly listed. The diesel and three sleepers were derailed but remained upright, and the last sleeper did not leave the track.

The last session of the state legislature passed a weed law providing for the destruction of noxious weeds, and authorizing various county commissioners to appoint the county road commissioners ex-officio weed inspectors. This law is found in Chapter 143 of the Laws of Utah for 1911. It provides that every county or corporation owning, controlling or occupying lands in this state shall destroy noxious weeds in such manner as to prevent them from bearing seed. To enforce this law, however, it is necessary that twenty-five land owners of a county to petition the county road commissioners ex-officio weed inspectors, and it is the duty of the
